

David Bennett

Barrister | Liverpool Civil Law

Professional Summary

David Bennett is Head of Chambers at Liverpool Civil Law and has practised exclusively in housing conditions litigation for the past 15 years. He is recognised as a leading figure in this field. With extensive court experience and a pragmatic approach to advocacy, David is dedicated to achieving the best outcomes for social housing tenants while ensuring honest, strategic advice for his professional clients.

Practice Areas

- Housing Conditions Litigation

Experience & Notable Cases

- Author of a leading practitioner guide on housing conditions litigation.
- Regularly secures awards exceeding £40,000 in appropriate cases.
- Extensive experience handling claims involving unfitness for human habitation, discomfort and inconvenience, and related personal injury.
- Acts almost exclusively on behalf of social housing tenants of local authorities and housing associations.

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- BSc (Hons)
- Called to the Bar by the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple: 1977

Publications & Speaking Engagements

- Provides legal training in housing litigation for solicitors and professionals.
- Author of 'Housing Conditions Litigation on Behalf of Social Housing Tenants – A Practitioner's Guide for Solicitors, Barristers and Surveyors' (Second Edition).

Contact:

clerks@liverpoolcivillaw.com

0151 242 0500

