

John Entwistle

Barrister | Liverpool Civil Law

Professional Summary

John Entwistle specialises in personal injury, clinical and dental negligence claims. He is known for his thorough preparation, clear and realistic advice, and approachable manner. John acts in a wide range of cases through to complex and high-value cases including amputations, spinal injuries and those with pain syndromes. He is also instructed in claims involving illness arising out of housing conditions.

Practice Areas

- Personal injury
- Clinical and Dental Negligence
- Professional negligence
- Housing conditions

Experience & Notable Cases

- Defended a substantial six-figure manual handling claim against a local authority that was ultimately discontinued.
- Achieved a substantial award for a claimant who developed DVT and extensive illness after a workplace accident.
- Acted in a case involving bowel perforation during caesarean section, resulting in sepsis.
- Successfully acted in a laparoscopic surgery case where the needle was lost, requiring open surgery.
- Secured a seven-figure settlement for a claimant whose leg was amputated after being struck during a road race.

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- Personal Injuries Bar Association
- Called to the Bar: 1995

Contact:

clerks@liverpoolcivillaw.com
0151 242 0500

