

David Pilling

Barrister | Liverpool Civil Law

Professional Summary

David Pilling is a senior junior specialising in clinical negligence and high-value personal injury claims. With decades of experience, he regularly acts as sole counsel in complex litigation exceeding £1 million in value. He has a particular interest in consent cases and where causation is complex or novel. David is known for his deep medical knowledge across most of the common medical specialities encountered in clinical negligence claims and particularly in gynaecological and psychiatric care claims.

Outside of clinical negligence claims he is regularly instructed in large value multi-track personal injury litigation. He has a particular specialism in Fatal Accidents Act claims.
