

Michael Krebs

Barrister | Liverpool Civil Law

Professional Summary

Michael Krebs is an experienced civil barrister specialising in residential housing, personal injury, and general common law. He is known for his relaxed but effective courtroom style, cross-examination skills, and niche expertise in Japanese knotweed litigation. Michael has appeared at all levels up to the Court of Appeal and is also an accredited mediator.

Practice Areas

- Mediation
- Common Law
- Personal Injury
- Residential Housing

Experience & Notable Cases

- Represented the claimant in Riaz v Fowler and MIB (2009), a significant Court of Appeal case.
- Acted in Woodward v Bennell and Crewe Alexandra (2004), representing the first whistleblower in the football league abuse scandal.
- Represented Liverpool Mutual Homes in Niven v LMH (2010), widely reported as Liverpool's worst antisocial behaviour case.
- Acted in Molodi v Cambridge Vibration (2016) – a key personal injury matter.

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- ADR-ODR International
- Royal Society of Mediators
- Member of Gray's Inn
- Called to the Bar: 1999

Publications & Speaking Engagements

- Delivers in-house training to legal professionals.
- Lecturer for Liverpool Law Society on housing, knotweed litigation, and civil claims.
- Regular contributor to the Law Society Gazette and other publications on housing and civil litigation topics.

Contact:

clerks@liverpoolcivillaw.com
0151 242 0500

